Your Playbook to Winning the Talent Game

Our Speakers from:

Rishona D. Harris
Director, Talent Acquisition and Development

Gail Elbourne
Talent Specialist

A top concern facing the construction industry is finding and keeping qualified labor. This problem can't be tackled by HR alone— The solution requires an organizational approach. Join us as we share the innovative strategies being used by Centuri Group, a gas and electric infrastructure services provider employing 8,000 across the U.S. and Canada. Rishona and Gail will discuss how employment data, employer brand, strategic partnerships, development programs, and succession planning are enhancing Centuri's workforce. Our goal is to give you a "playbook" of ideas to apply at your own organization.

Our Core Purpose | To enhance the success of women in the construction industry.
